Special Events Committee Minutes April 9, 2019

Chairman thanked everyone for agreeing to the new meeting time.

OLD BUSINESS:

EASTER EGG HUNT

Weather might be rainy.

Ben LoParo has 6 children who need NHS hours. So they will be there at 10am to bury the eggs.

Adults coming at noon.

We have no rain date.

Seaview Orthopedics donating pails and shovels, to be picked up on the 12th. Should that fall through, Wawa will donate bags. There was a discussion about the fine details of who would be assigned to what area that day. We will have Scooby snacks, goldfish, water, chocolate bunnies. It's a training day for the Police K-9, they will be there.

CONTINUATION OF FOUNDERS DAY PLANNING

ART CONTEST:

Chairman discussed the finalization of the entry form and contest details for the Art Contest. Three divisions: K-8, one winner for each grade (1st, 2nd, 3rd), HS, and Adult painting/flat art, sculpture, and photography are the categories; theme: Waretown (anything pertaining to the town) (showed proof of the ribbons to be awarded)

Winners will be displayed in the library for the month of June, with a reception towards the end of the month.

We need judges: 3 (?) We'd prefer judges outside of this committee.

Flyer went home to the students at the schools, registration by May 1st so we know how many entries. We will have a sided tent, artwork will be dropped off by 10am with judging at noon. Art will be taken home by the contestants, so we have no responsibility for the artwork.
